Must sell Simmons SD350 Drum Set. Works good! This was my roommate's drum set. He moved out of state and didn't have room to carry all of the set. So, he says sell. I know nothing about it but had a friend check it out. Everything works and it does so much more as you can see at this link. I'm only asking $100 because two drums and two cymbals, plus stool, went with the roommate. It can be hooked up to a stereo, blue tooth, and headphones. Also, it has over a hundred presets. It would be great for the person who wants to learn to drum on a budget. Read more about it below. If you have any questions or wish to make an offer, please do.
